Let Panaprint handle your project from start to finish!
Save time and money with our in-house mailing services.

To better serve you, Panaprint combines printing and mailing services under one roof.

- With today's frequently changing postal rules and regulations, allowing us to handle your mailing needs will minimize postal and project costs.
- Our mailing technicians, along with our customer service professionals, are always available to give you expert assistance.
- Our expert graphics team can help you design a product for economical mailing. If you choose to use your own design, we will evaluate it before printing to be sure it meets all postal regulations.
- Sending us your mailing list is quick and easy. We provide you with several options for getting it to us: send it through e-mail, upload it to our ftp site, or send it to us on disk.
- All of your mailing services are conducted in-house, saving you both time and additional expense. Using our P.A.V.E. software, we can evaluate your mailing list data, apply Zip+4 coding, merge, purge and eliminate duplicates, CASS certify, and barcode before addressing your printed products.
- Panaprint delivers your mailing directly to the US Post Office in Macon, GA. We can also arrange for in-house postal verification and drop shipment to other post offices. Ask your customer service representative if this would be beneficial to you.
