2019 – A Year of Engagement for PIAG

New year, new PIAG. This year, we're excited to be rolling out a host of initiatives to make PIAG more useful than ever before for your business. Throughout 2019, be on the lookout for more ways to become engaged with your association.

First and foremost, PIAG is going on tour! Throughout the year, we'll be touring the state and bringing our favorite Atlanta event—the Mix & Mingle—directly to you. With eight stops between now and end of 2019, we'll be in your neck of the woods sooner than you think. For more information and dates, please visit page 10 of this issue of ThePrintQueue.

Speaking of ThePrintQueue, as you have probably noticed, we have gotten a facelift. ThePrintQueue is known as the forefront publication about the Georgia print industry, and we're excited to bring more relevant content for all audiences of ThePrintQueue. Be on the lookout throughout 2019 for more educational content and more content that directly benefits you, our members, in both ThePrintQueue and our bi-weekly e-newsletter, Pressing News.

Finally, we want to hear from you! As we move into this Year of Engagement, we want to remind you that as members, you are the driving force behind this association. We are here to help you grow as businesses and as an industry. We look forward to hearing more from you and getting you involved in the wonderful initiatives we have going on here at PIAG.
