

ePublishing

Digital and Interactive!

Electronic publishing, also known as “ePublishing”, involves the digital publication of various print products such as magazines, catalogs and ebooks. The magic of ePublishing is the ability to enhance the reading experience interactively with the ease of distribution.

Panaprint's ePublishing Services transforms your PDF content into online digital documents optimized for desktop or mobile distribution.

- Digital documents can have live links, allowing readers to drill down to more detailed information on important topics.
- Publishers have access to analytics to monitor the reader's engagement from your unique dashboard.

- Archiving and hosting of your issue is included for three years.
- ePublishing ensures that everyone has the latest copy. Updating is quick and distribution is easy.
- ePublished documents are a great supportive product to your printed projects.

Customers will be billed at $4.25* per page with additional charges applied for specialty pages like gatefolds, inserts, and other special services. Downloads are $.35* each and customers will be billed on a separate monthly invoice for all ePublish charges.
